

AS PART OF ITS CONSULTATIVE GROUP WEEK, ESMAP PRESENTS:

RETHINKING THE FUTURE OF ENERGY

12-250, THE WORLD BANK, 1850 I ST NW, WASHINGTON DC

9.00AM-3.45PM, 4 MARCH 2014

[RESCHEDULED DUE TO INCLEMENT WEATHER ON 3 MARCH]

AGENDA

Time	Session	Topic	Participants
08:00	Registration and light breakfast (2nd floor, I Building) CG Members and speakers should aim to arrive by 8.30am to pass through security screening and pick up their badge
09:00	Introduction and outline		Vijay Iyer , Director, Sustainable Energy Department, World Bank Group
09:15	Session 1: The big picture – climate change and sustainable energy  Moderated by Katherine Sierra, Senior Fellow, Brookings Institution	Keynote Presentation: “ The Burning Question : We can’t burn half the world’s oil, coal and gas. So how do we quit?”	Duncan Clark , Consultant Environment Editor, The Guardian and author of a new book on climate change and energy
		Keynote Presentation: “Reinventing Fire: profitable business-led opportunities for major gains in energy efficiency and clean energy supply”  Followed by Q&A	Dr. Amory Lovins , Co-Founder and Chief Scientist, Rocky Mountain Institute
		Panel discussion: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• What do these global scenarios mean for individual developing countries (importers/exporters, low/middle income)?</li> <li>• Are fossil fuel investments built today tomorrow’s liabilities?</li> <li>• How do we maximize take-up of sustainable energy opportunities?</li> <li>• How should WBG client countries (and the WBG) respond?</li> </ul>	Anthony Hopley , CEO, Carbon Tracker Initiative  Dr. Ricardo Raineri , Alternate Executive Director for Argentina, Bolivia, Chile, Paraguay, Peru and Uruguay, World Bank, and former Minister of Energy, Chile
11:30	Coffee break

12:00	Session 2: Perspectives on the future of large-scale renewable electricity generation Moderated by Richard Stern, President of the Partnership for Transparency Fund and independent energy consultant	TED-style talks from each participant, followed by facilitated conversation and Q&amp;A	Hector Olea, President and CEO, Gauss Energia Dr. Günther Bachmann, Secretary General of the German Council on Sustainable Development
13:15     Lunch
14:15	Session 3: Innovations from the field – technologies and business models for expanding access to energy Moderated by Julia Bucknall, Sector Manager, South Asia Energy Unit, The World Bank	Showcase presentation by each participant (10 minutes) followed by facilitated conversation and Q&amp;A	Yashraj Khaitan, Co-Founder and CEO, Gram Power Michael Gratwicke, Managing Director, Rift Valley Energy Tri Mumpuni, Executive Director, IBEKA Mitra Ardron, CEO and Founder, Lumeter Networks Nick Hughes, Chairman, M-KOPA Solar
15:30	Conclusions and wrap-up		Rohit Khanna, ESMAP Program Manager, World Bank
15:45	Event closes		